

TODAY'S SERVICE

Twelfth Sunday After Trinity

September 4, 2022

Dear Saints of St. John's: We welcome our Rector back from holidays - and Penny too - this morning, glad for their having lots of time for rest, reflection, and summer joys. You've been missed !!

Today I offer my last little piece on the effect of the preaching ministry of several clergy in England 250 years ago. Their ministry reformed the English Church in their day by direct impact, as many thousands heard and responded to their sermons. It was pure, 'apostolic' evangelism. In addition, many, many other ministers - initially opposed to Whitfield, Wesley & co. - found themselves stirred, and inspired: England, according to JC Ryle, "was shaken from one end to another ... and a candle was lit of which we are now [in 1800] enjoying the benefit." I reckon we, in ANiC 2022, can say the same. Guy B.

THE LITURGY (ORDER OF SERVICE) will be presented entirely on screen.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY After all the children come forward for prayer, their class meets upstairs, and will be brought down for Holy Communion.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty and everlasting God, who art always more ready to hear than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire or deserve: Pour down upon us the abundance of thy mercy; forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ, thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION

When receiving the bread and drinking individual cups of wine, the Servers will say:

May the Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life: Take and eat this in remembrance that Christ died for thee, and feed on him in thy heart by faith with thanksgiving.

May the Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life: Drink this in remembrance that Christ's Blood was shed for thee, and be thankful.
